MONTEREY COUNTY SCIENCE FAIR! Congratulations to our Palma High School students; Andy Falconer, Kyle Moore, and Daniel Wege, for their superb efforts at the 2010 Monterey County Science and Engineering Fair competition at CSUMB Saturday 6 March 2010. Each student competed in separate Senior high school divisions and presented an outstanding verbal defense of their projects in competition for top honors. Andy was awarded 1st place in the Senior Chemistry division and was selected as an alternate to the 2010 California State Science and Engineering Fair competition - a first for Palma High School. Kyle had an outstanding poster and presented his evidence with praise from the judges. Daniel was awarded 3rd place in the Senior Applied Materials and Mechanical Structure division. The judges recommended that these students return for the 2011 Monterey County Science and Engineering Fair. Job well done.
